I Can't Come Down

If you have lived long enough and have experienced trying to be something and do something, you know what it means to be discouraged. There are scores of people who have gone to their graves with great and noble dreams of the character they could have possessed, the aspirations they could have accomplished, the work they could have done, the goals they could have reached, the success they could have achieved, and the good influence they could have spread. But all these noble things are buried with them in their graves with the invisible epitaph written on their tombstones, "DIED A FAILURE BECAUSE OF DISCOURAGEMENT."

Don't Know Much About Church History

The Restoration Movement of the nineteenth century should not be confused with the Reformation, which was influenced greatly by Martin Luther. The Reformation leaders had as their aim the reformation of the Roman Catholic Church. The Restoration leaders' goal was to restore the New Testament Church and the practice of New Testament Christianity. Just as the reformers had no intention of starting a new church, the restorers did not intend to start a new church.

Hush Your Mouth

Includes two chapters which explain a communications model involving preaching, worship and ministry in the Black church and 27 sermonic messages on premarital and marital life, grief, revivalistic and evangelistic themes.

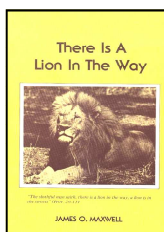

Super Bowl VII

The purpose of Revelation is to comfort encourage and edify Christians to endure against Roman persecution. (Revelation 17:6, 18) John's main focus was to the Churches of Asia Minor. (Revelation 1:9-11, 14:12) He stressed that the bulk of things which he wrote "must shortly come to pass" rather than to be a modern reality. However there are events in Revelation that have relevance for the present time and end-time. The persecution that John spoke of was mainly to take place in the lives of those within the churches of Asia Minor near the time that John penned his message to these churches.

There Is A Lion In The Way

"The slothful man saith, there is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets" (Proverbs 26:13)

The lion in the way and in the streets is not the lion who is ascribed as the "King of the Jungle." The lion in the way is not the type of lion that is trained by circus performers. The lion that I am speaking of is even more ferocious than the roaring lions in Africa. This lion has been practically everywhere, and has done about everything! We are to be on our guard against this lion, for this lion is the DEVIL!
